

Human Ethology Newsletter No. 7
February 1975

This issue is devoted almost exclusively to the forthcoming human ethology meetings. Forms are attached for:

(1) The Human Ethology meeting in conjunction with the Animal Behavior Society annual meeting at Wilmington, North Carolina, May 22-26, 1975. Information about lodging will appear in a future issue of the newsletter. Please return the form and abstract promptly because we have to mesh the schedule of our sessions with those of the Animal Behavior Society. It is important that the abstract be typed on a separate page because it will be reproduced by an offset printing method, and distributed to those who register for the meetings.

(2) The International Human Ethology meeting will be held in Sheffield, England this year, with Dr. Peter Smith hosting the meeting. We hope the form is not too confusing, but if you simply plan to attend the meeting, the room reservation form can be sent to Dr. Smith; but if you plan to present a paper, show a film, suggest a workshop or discussion group, etc., then the form should be sent to Dr. Marvin, who will schedule the various sessions. If you have already submitted an abstract then just send us the room reservation form.

While in the past those from North America have presented most of the papers at the England meetings, the difficulty in obtaining travel funds in these austere times may sharply curtail their attendance. It is hoped that others will feel free to present examples of their research efforts at the forthcoming meeting. The value of the past meetings has been that people are willing to present their ideas for criticism and comment. We hope the same spirit will prevail at this meeting.

The next international meeting is scheduled for 1977 and we would appreciate offers from those who would be willing to host it.
